Mr. Allen Dulles
C I A Director
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Dulles:

Drew Pearson said last night that you don't want farm machinery sent to Russia because it will help them increase their agricultural output.

The Dulleses are surely doing their best to prejudice other countries against the United States. It is dreadful to try to hinder any country, behind or outside the Iron Curtain, from raising sufficient food and other agricultural products for its people.

What a strange business you are engaged in. I read the Richard and Gladys Harkness articles that appeared in the Saturday Evening Post back in the fall of 1954. I don't see how a minister's son, raised in a Christian home, can do what you have to do in your job, Mr. Dulles.

Very sincerely,
